

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Kuchler of Ogden, Utah.

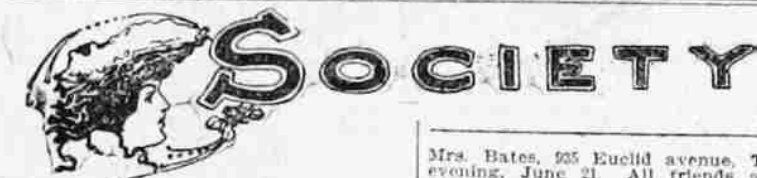

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, June 18.—The principal social event of the week was the marriage of Theodore Kuchler and Miss Johanna Weinberg Wednesday afternoon. The ceremony took place at 563 Twenty-first street, where the bride and groom intend to make their future home. The bride is a native of New York and came to Ogden about a year ago to visit her cousin, Councilman Max Davidson, and here made many friends during her stay here.

Mr. Kuchler is a member of the firm of Kuchler Bros., wholesale and retail tobacco and cigar dealers, and prominent as sheep owners.

The young couple will be at home to their friends after July 1 at 563 Twenty-first street.

IMAGINE an oblong mirror, extending nearly the full length of the table, its edge outlined with cool green leaves, reflected in its surface a myriad of brilliant California poppies in tiny cut-glass vases thickly dotting the long table, with a soft yellow light from the chandelier above, and one can form some idea of the beauty of the decorations at the luncheon given by Mrs. Ellsworth Dagg yesterday in honor of Mrs. Harold Russell and Mrs. Frank W. Jennings. At the plates of the guests were exquisite French fans with bows of satin ribbon in yellow and on these appeared the names of the guests. Vases of wild mustard flowers and low bowls of the California poppies beautified the parlor and reception-hall, and bowls of deep red roses were seen on the veranda, where coffee was enjoyed after luncheon. Invited to meet Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Jennings were Mrs. Heber M. Wells, Mrs. J. R. Walker, Mrs. Francis S. Bassom, Mrs. Joseph M. Bidwell, Mrs. Kenneth Kerr, Mrs. Walter G. Filer and Mrs. Edwin S. Ferry.

Mrs. Harold Russell was guest of honor at a second delightful affair yesterday afternoon, the high tea at the home of Mrs. W. W. Riter. One long table was laid in the dining-room, an oblong mound of pink roses extending down the center, broken in the center and at either end by handsome silver candelabra embedded in low bowls of the roses. Extending from the candelabra to the plates of the guests were pale pink ribbons, and to these were attached beautiful clusters of roses, the favors of the occasion. The lamps of the chandelier were shaded in pink, and candelabra with candles and shades of pink were on mantel, buffet and table. Those who enjoyed the very pleasant luncheon in addition to the guest of honor, were: Mrs. Heber M. Wells, Mrs. Richard P. Morris, Mrs. Albert S. Bower, Mrs. J. L. Thompson and Mrs. Kenneth C. Kerr, Mrs. James H. Moyle, Mrs. John D. Spencer, Mrs. James E. Jennings, Mrs. Stanley H. Chase, Mrs. Leroy G. Dinwiddie, Mrs. Julia C. Taylor, Mrs. Joseph E. Caine, Mrs. Robert J. Easton, Mrs. A. A.
